

How to Register for IR-4's 2026 Food Use Workshop

1. Fill in all the fields on the first page, then click Add to Cart

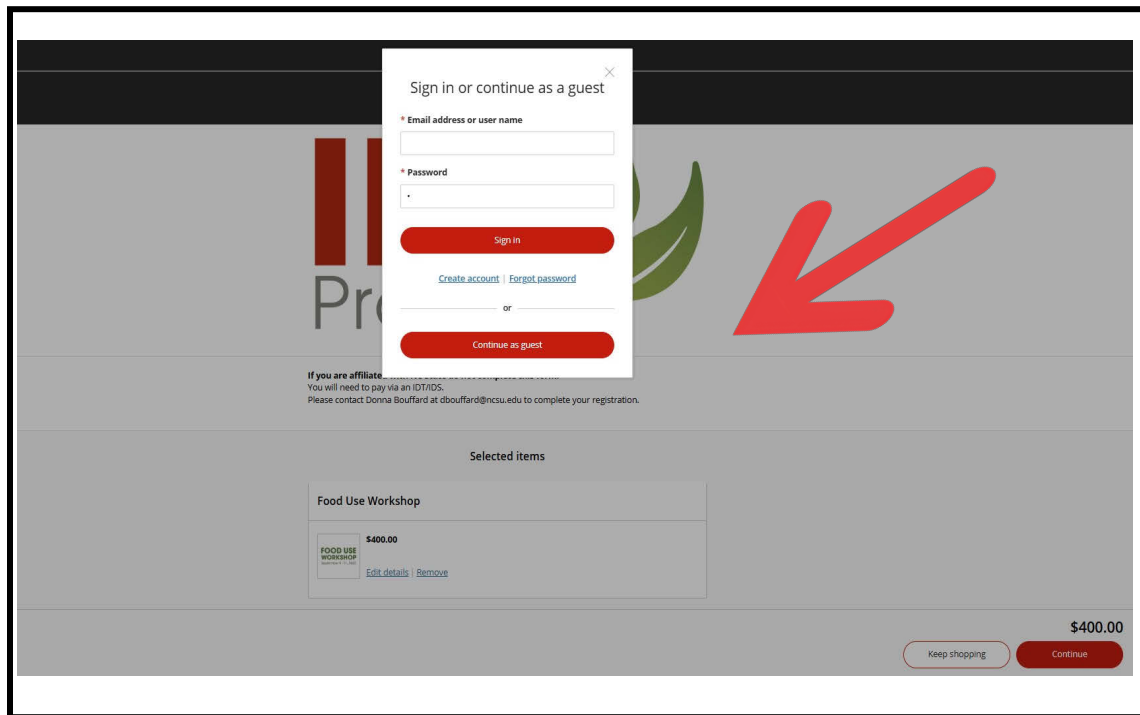

The screenshot shows the IR-4 Project registration page. At the top is the IR-4 Project logo. Below it, a notice states: "If you are affiliated with NC State do not complete this form. You will need to pay via an IDT/IDS. Please contact Donna Bouffard at dbouffard@ncsu.edu to complete your registration." The main content area is titled "Food Use Workshop" and shows a price of "$400.00". Below the price, there is a dropdown menu for "Please select the session(s) you plan to attend." with the option "Both Food and Integrated Solutions Sessions" selected. Below that is a text input field for "Registered Attendee Name" with the value "John smith" and a note "Maximum 50 characters". At the bottom right, there are two buttons: "Back" and "Add to cart". A large red arrow points down towards the "Add to cart" button.

2. Then, click Continue

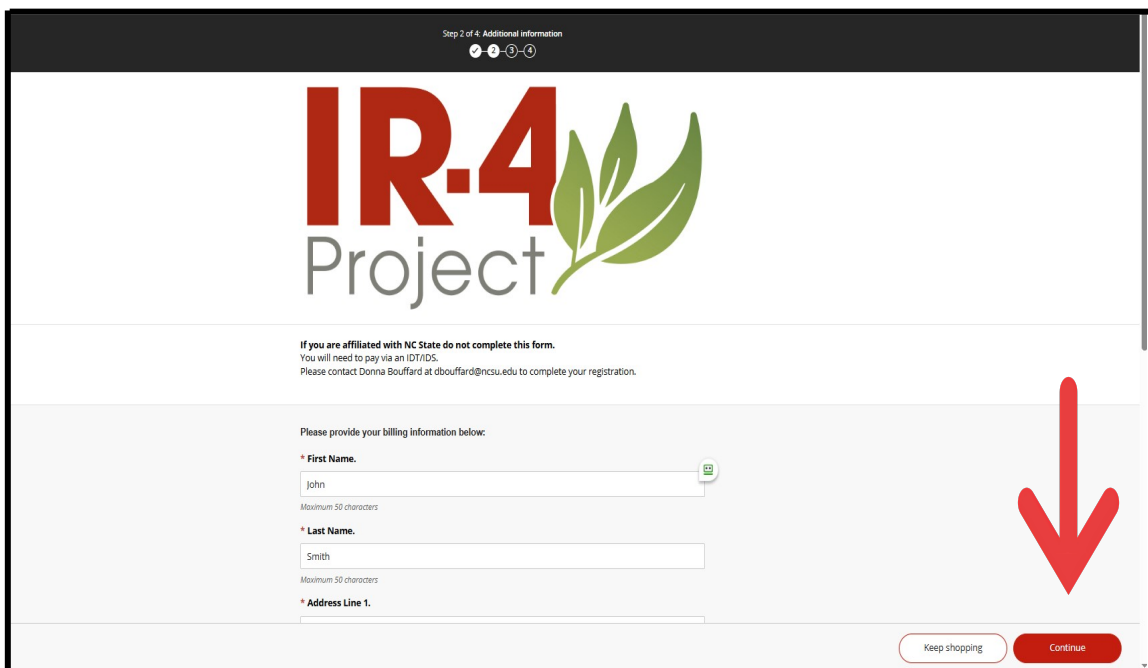

The screenshot shows the "Selected items" section of the registration page. It displays the "Food Use Workshop" with a price of "$400.00". Below the price, there are links for "Edit details" and "Remove". At the bottom right, there are two buttons: "Keep shopping" and "Continue". A large red arrow points down towards the "Continue" button. The total price "$400.00" is displayed above the buttons.

3. Click Continue as guest

The screenshot shows a registration page for the IR-4 Project. A modal window titled "Sign in or continue as a guest" is open, featuring input fields for "Email address or user name" and "Password", a "Sign in" button, and links for "Create account" and "Forgot password". Below these is a "Continue as guest" button, which is highlighted by a large red arrow. The background shows a shopping cart with one item, "Food Use Workshop", priced at $400.00. At the bottom right, there are "Keep shopping" and "Continue" buttons, with the total amount of $400.00 displayed.

4. Fill in the billing information fields and click Continue

The screenshot shows the "Step 2 of 4: Additional Information" section of the registration process. It features the IR-4 Project logo and a note about NC State affiliation. Below, there is a section titled "Please provide your billing information below:" with three input fields: "First Name" (containing "John"), "Last Name" (containing "Smith"), and "Address Line 1". A large red arrow points down towards the "Continue" button at the bottom right. The "Keep shopping" button is also visible.

Note: You are able to register for other participants; fill in their information as the "Registered Attendee" and then your information in the Billing section.

6. Add your credit card information and click Continue
